RMLD Thanks Customers for Donating to Coats for KIDS

Reading, MA – Reading Municipal Light Department's (RMLD's) recent coat drive to benefit Anton's Cleaners Coats for KIDS Campaign was a tremendous success. RMLD would like to sincerely thank customers who generously made a coat donation when picking up their 2020 RMLD historical calendar. Approximately 325 coats were donated during the three-week drive.

RMLD would also like to thank the following organizations for hosting a coat collection box during the coat drive: the Town of Reading, Reading Public Library, the Pleasant Street Center, the Town of North Reading, the Edith A. O'Leary Senior Center, Flint Memorial Library, New England Beverage, the Town of Wilmington, Wilmington Memorial Library, Buzzell Senior Center, Lucci's Supermarket, and the Town of Lynnfield.

If you were unable to make RMLD's drive but still wish to participate, Anton's Cleaners Coats for KIDS campaign will accept coats for children and adults at all Anton's Cleaners, Enterprise Bank, and Jordan's Furniture locations through January 12, 2020.
