RMLD Invites Local High School Students to Participate in Art Contest to Commemorate 125th Anniversary

Reading, MA – Reading Municipal Light Department (RMLD) invites high school students from Reading, North Reading, Wilmington, and areas of Lynnfield served by RMLD to showcase their creativity by participating in an art contest to commemorate RMLD's 125th anniversary. Various art mediums will be accepted, including, but not limited to: drawings, paintings, photography, and graphic art. Finished artwork is due by Friday, August 30, 2019 at 12:00 pm.

Students who wish to participate must visit www.rml.com to review contest materials and register by August 15th. The first 50 students to register by June 15th will receive qualified art supplies valued at up to $20.

Each student who submits artwork by the deadline will receive a certificate for ten hours of community service. Three to five winners will be selected based on the number of submissions received and the content of the artwork. Each winner will receive a gift card of up to $100 for qualified school or art supplies. One submission will be selected to be featured on the cover of RMLD's Annual Report.

More information and official contest rules may be found at <https://www.rml.com/community/pages/high-school-student-art-contest-2019>.
